

Explore taonga passed down from our ancestors through our FREE interactive Māori New Year programmes held during the month of June at the National Army Museum Te Mata Toa

Puanga, Matariki, Māori New Year

5 June – 5 July 2018

Select your FREE 2018 Māori new year programme/s & contact our Education team to book!
Costs apply for optional extra's

To book or talk with an Educator:
Ph: (06) 3876911
E: museumeducation@nzdf.mil.nz

Ngā kēmu o mua Games from our past 55mins

Explore activities & pastimes of our soldier's and learn te reo Māori & waiata by participating in fun games!

Māori stick games, Tī rākau

* optional extra @ $2 - design and take home your own rākau.

Programme suitable for Y1 – Y8

Ngā taonga o mua Treasures from our past 55mins

Explore the many taonga handed down from tīpuna through fun, interactive activities.

Be guided through the museum's galleries to view artefacts, symbols & icons from our past that have shaped our Aotearoa Identity.

Taonga uku/Clay work * optional extra @$2
Which artefact, symbol or icon will you choose to create, take home & share it's story with your whānau?

Programme suitable for Y1 – Y8

Survival of a Soldier: Ration pack

*Cost = $8 1hr 15min cooking

3 Cook & eat a modern day ration pack for lunch over a hexamine burner. Compare it with kai our ancestors were supplied with during war time.

* Programme suitable for Y4-13

